Story, Program Deadline Is Nov. 15

3 Weeks Remain In Yule Contest

Three weeks remain for Mountain West writers to put finishing touches on their entries in the traditional Christmas News Story and Poem Contest.

Midnight, Nov. 15, will be postmark deadline for all entries filed in the Deseret News writing competition. Prizes of $100 and $50 will be awarded for the best story and poem submitted.

Winning entries will be published in the Christmas News edition in mid-December.

Rules for the contest follow.

1. Award for top Christmas short story is $100; prize for the best poem is $50. Each is published in the annual Christmas News, and authors receive newspaper recognition for their work.

2. Short stories may not exceed 4,000 words and must be on a Christmas theme. Poems must be no longer than 50 lines and along a similar theme.

3. Entries will be filed to arrive at the Deseret News by midnight, November 15, 1956. They should be mailed to Christmas News Contest, Deseret News, 33 Richards St., Salt Lake City, Utah. Only those entries accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope will be returned.

4. A nom de plume must be used on each entry. This pen name and the author's real name and address, title of work and the first few lines should be included in another sealed envelope identified only by the nom de plume.

5. All persons residing in Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Wyoming, northern Arizona and western Colorado are eligible to enter, with the exception of employes and distributors of the Deseret News Publishing Company, the Newspaper Agency Corporation and its affiliates and members of their immediate families. There is no limit to the number of entries a person may file.

Crop Improvement Unit Sets Salt Lake Meeting

The 1957 meeting of the International Crop Assn. will open Monday in the Hotel Utah with approximately 175 seed growers, dealers and agronomists from throughout the United States and from foreign countries attending.

Seed certification standards will be reviewed and brought up to date during the five-day meeting, said Prof. Golden L. Stoker of Utah State Agricultural College, chairman of the arrangements committee.

Indians To Seek Voting Franchise

A decision denying the voting franchise to residents of Utah Indian or other federal reservations will be appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Robert W. Barker, Washington, D.C., an attorney for the Indians, informed the Utah Supreme Court to this effect Thursday.

Mr. Barker, by long distance telephone, ordered a photostatic copy of the record in the case which he said he will submit immediately to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The suit was filed recently on behalf of Preston Allen, vice president of the Affiliated Ute Citizens of Utah, seeking to compel the Duchesne County clerk to issue Mr. Allen an absentee ballot.

The Utah court held Thursday that the right to vote is granted by the state and it would require legislative action to grant the franchise to either Indians or others who have not acquired off-reservation residence.
